Houben Souren Selects EW-DX as New Wireless Microphone System for Their Rental Department

“As an authorized Sennheiser dealer, we have a long history of collaboration with Sennheiser. This project required a critical assessment to identify the best solution for our region. We chose EW-DX owing to its outstanding sound quality, versatility, and reliability.”

Etienne Souren, Owner Houben Souren

Challenge

For its rental department, Houben Souren was looking for a reliable and secure digital microphone system for professional applications in conferences and corporate events that would withstand intensive use on stage.

Solution

Following a meticulous assessment to identify the most effective solution for their region, Houben Souren invested in over 50 wireless channels of Sennheiser’s EW-DX digital microphone system.
